USA 3000 Airlines shall also furnish the statement upon request to any person at all airport ticket counter positions and at all boarding locations being used by the carrier. The statement shall read as follows:

a. Compensation for Denied Boarding

- 1) If you have been denied a reserved seat on USA 3000 Airlines you are probably entitled to monetary compensation. This notice explains the airline's obligations and the passenger's rights in the case of an oversold flight, in accordance with regulations of the Department of Transportation (DOT).

b. Volunteers and Boarding Priorities

- 1) If a flight is oversold (more passengers hold confirmed reservations than there are seats available), no one may be denied boarding against his or her will until airline personnel first ask for volunteers who will give up their reservation willingly in exchange for a payment of the airline's choosing. If there are not enough volunteers, other passengers may be denied boarding involuntarily in accordance with the following boarding priority of USA 3000 Airlines:

- a) The last passenger(s) to present him/herself at the boarding gate.
- b) Reasonable efforts will be made to accommodate disabled, elderly, or infirmed passengers needing assistance, unaccompanied children under 12 years of age and connecting passengers.

c. Compensation of Involuntary Denied Boarding

- 1) If a passenger is denied boarding involuntarily, the passenger is entitled to a payment of "denied boarding compensation" from the airline unless:
 - a) The passenger has not fully complied with the airline's ticketing, check-in, and reconfirmation requirements; or, the passenger is not acceptable for transportation under the airline's usual rules and practices.
 - b) The passenger is denied boarding because the flight is canceled.
 - c) The passenger is denied boarding because a smaller capacity aircraft was substituted for safety or operational reasons.

d. Amount of Denied Boarding Compensation

- 1) Passengers who are eligible for denied boarding compensation must be offered a payment equal to the sum of the face values of their itinerary, with a $400 maximum. However, if the airline cannot arrange "alternate transportation" (see below) for the passenger, the compensation is doubled ($800 maximum). The "value" of the ticket coupon is the one-way fare for the flight shown on the coupon including any surcharge and air transportation tax, minus any applicable discount. All flight coupons including connecting flights to the passenger's final destination or first 4-hour stopover are used to compute the compensation. "Alternate transportation" is air transportation (by an airline licensed by the DOT) or other transportation used by the passenger which, at the time the arrangement is made, arrives at the passenger's next scheduled stopover (of 4 hours or longer) or final destination no later than 2 hours (for flights within U.S. points, including territories and possessions) or 4 hours (for international flights) after the passenger's originally scheduled arrival time.

e. Method of Payment

- 1) The airline must give each passenger who qualifies for denied boarding compensation a payment by cash or check for the amount specified above, on the day and place the involuntary denied boarding occurs. However, if the airline arranges alternate transportation for the passenger's convenience that departs before the payment can be made, the payment will be sent to the passenger within twenty-four (24) hours. The air carrier may offer free tickets in place of cash payment. The passenger may, however, insist on the cash payment, or refuse all compensation and bring private legal action.

f. Passenger's Options

- 1) Acceptance of compensation may relieve USA 3000 Airlines from any further liability to the passenger caused by its failure to honor the confirmed reservation. However, the passenger may decline the payment and seek to recover damages in a court of law or in some other manner.

RIGHT OF THE AIR CARRIER AND LIMITS ON LIABILITY FOR DELAY OR FAILURE TO PERFORM SERVICE, INCLUDING SCHEDULE CHANGES, SUBSTITUTION OF ALTERNATE AIRCRAFT, AND REROUTING

- A. USA 3000 Airlines will endeavor to transport the passenger and baggage with reasonable dispatch, but times shown in timetables or elsewhere are not guaranteed and form no part of this contract.
- B. The agreed stopping places are those places shown in USA 3000 Airlines timetables as scheduled stopping places on the route. USA 3000 Airlines may, without notice, substitute alternative carriers or aircraft and, if necessary, may alter or omit stopping places shown on the timetable.
- C. Schedules are subject to change without notice. USA 3000 Airlines is not responsible or liable for failure to make connections or for failure to operate any flight according to schedule, or for a change to the schedule of any flight. Under no circumstances shall USA 3000 Airlines be liable for any special, incidental or consequential damages arising from the foregoing (including the carriage of baggage) whether or not USA 3000 Airlines had knowledge that such damages might be incurred.
- D. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, USA 3000 Airlines cannot guarantee that the passenger's baggage will be carried on the flight if sufficient space is not available based on the sole determination of USA 3000 Airlines.
- E. USA 3000 Airlines will not provide or reimburse passengers for expenses incurred due to delays or cancellations of flights.
